

Christoph Andenmatten

Education

Master of Science in Business Administration, University of Berne
Swiss Certified Auditor

Professional experience

1988 - 1990 working for KPMG as junior audit assistant 1990 - 1991 working for the federal finance administration as scientific employee 1991 - 1995 working for KPMG as auditor
1995 - 1997 working as auditor for Ernst & Young 1997 - 2001 working for swiss federal railways as head of corporate accounting 2001 - 2010 working for KPMG as auditor, since 2002 as head of the audit department of KPMG Berne, since 2005 as partner since 2010 working as partner for Gfeller + Partner AG

Memberships

Swiss Institute of Certified Accountants and Tax Consultants EXPERTsuisse

Language skills

German, French, English

Knowledge

auditor in charge for statutory audits of companies of different legal forms and sizes acting in different industries with financial statements in accordance with Swiss Code of Obligation and Swiss GAAP FER. Specific industry knowledge in public transportation, logistics and industrial products. Experience in advisory engagements (e.g. implementation of accounting standards, preparation of group accounts, financial due diligence and valuations); support in the design of financial statements considering aspects of commercial and tax law as well as business management reasons